FRENCH STRIKE AT GAS FACTORY FROM SKIES

Aviators Spend Another Busy Day.
Mulheim Station and Shipyards Under Bombardment.

Paris, Aug. 27.—Bombardment of more German positions by French aviators is reported in today's communique from the war office. The statement also says that many German trenches have been captured in the Vosges. The communique follows:
"In the sector to the north of Arras the cannonade was less violent during the night. It was very sharp in the region of Roye and on the plateau between the Oise and Sein.
"In the Argonne there were reported only incidents of mine warfare, in which we held the advantage."

"In the Vosges to the south of Bon-denach we straightened our front and pressed forward the occupation of the front by our troops. On the crest between Sombach and Landerbach we captured many German trenches. A counter attack by the enemy was completely repulsed.
"During the day of August 26 our aviators bombarded St. Baussant in the Vosges and Essey in the Argonne.
The stations at Ivory and at Clerges were likewise bombarded by our machines. Following an attack made by German aeroplanes on Clermont in the Argonne, where the bombs thrown by the aviators resulted in neither death nor damage, during the night of August 26-27, one of our aeroplanes threw ten shells on the asphyxiating gas factory at Dornach. This morning a squadron bombarded the station and shipyards at Mulheim, in the Grand Duchy of Baden. All the aviators returned safely."

EXPORTS OF U. S. LEAD THE WORLD

Country This Year Takes Front Place for First Time in Its History.

RAPID GROWTH IS SHOWN

Figures Show Increase for U. S. of 17 Per Cent, While Britain Loses 30.

For the first time in its history the United States leads the world as an exporter. Occasionally the United States has surpassed the United Kingdom in the exportation of domestic products, but it was only in the fiscal year ended June 30, 1915, that the total exports, domestic and foreign, exceeded those of the United Kingdom.
Our total exports in the fiscal year 1915, according to an official statement of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce, aggregated $2,785,000,000 as against $2,170, 100,000 for the United Kingdom, the figures representing in the case of the United States an increase of 17 per cent and in the case of the United Kingdom a decrease of 30 per cent when compared with last year.

American exports in the fiscal year 1915 included domestic products to the value of $2,716,200,000, against $2,329,700,000 in 1914; and foreign products, $52,400,000, against $40,400,000 in the preceding year.
British exports in the same periods included British and Irish produce, $1,744, 100,000 in 1915, against $2,557,200,000 in 1914; and foreign and colonial produce, $28,000,000 in 1915, compared with $28, 500,000 in 1914.
The following table, from official reports on file in the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, shows the remarkable growth of exports from the United States and the United Kingdom at twenty-year intervals during the past century:

Year	American Exports	British Exports
1895	$20,000,000	$50,000,000
1905	$15,000,000	$43,000,000
1915	$2,785,000,000	$2,170,100,000

The great industrial development of the United States during the century is illustrated by the increase in exports of manufactures. In 1895, the earliest year for which figures are available, exports of manufactures were valued at $8,000,000; in 1915 they aggregated $1,166,000,000 exclusive of foodstuffs.

Girl's Assault Publicly Hung.

girl on July 15. His body was afterward brought to Federalburg.

GOVERNORS FOR BIGGER DEFENSE

Secretary Redfield Slaps Colonel at Boston Conference.

"STOP ROCKING BOAT"

Several State Executives Reply to Bleasle's Sentiments on Mob Rule and Liberty.

Boston, Aug. 27.—The greatest conference of governors in the history of the United States came to a close in Boston today with a formal discussion of the nation's most pressing problem—military preparedness.
The leading men of thirty States, equipped with power and authority to express the views of those sovereign Commonwealths, told what they believe the States individually and the country as a whole should do to forestall foreign invasion.
The principal address on preparedness was delivered by James F. Fielder, governor of New Jersey. He advocated a greater army and navy and development of State militia. Gov. Edward F. Dunne, of Illinois, advocated better preparedness. Former Gov. Elias M. Ammons, of Colorado, urged a bigger army and navy.
Secretary of Commerce Redfield ensured Jingolism.
"Stop at Colonel." Urging sobriety of thought in the present world crisis, Secretary of Commerce Redfield declared to the conference that this is no time for "rocking the boat." His speech was construed by the conference as a rebuke to the recent speech of Col. Roosevelt at Plattsburgh. He said:
"There is a cowardice of silence in which men dare not speak. There is a cowardice of language if spoken wrongly and at the wrong time. Between these two extremes lies the great body of sound, sober and fearless American opinion. Is it a sign of national power to have a quick temper? If it be so, I have misread American history." Gov. Dunne, of Illinois, said: "From the bellicose jingo who would involve this country in a foreign war on slight provocation to the peace-at-any-price citizen, all of us have been seriously considering the question as to whether our military and naval armament ought not to be increased at least for defensive purposes. A large standing army has been and always will be an enormous expense to any nation." "Let us be prepared to protect the life of the nation from aggression from abroad, not by a standing army at least, but by a citizen-soldier, but by a trained citizen-soldier that can be maintained without imposing particularly heavy burdens on the taxpayers."

Reply to Bleasle.
The statement of former Gov. Bleasle, of South Carolina at the conference yesterday that "when mobs are no longer possible, liberty will be dead," was replied to by several speakers at today's session.
Gov. Walsh said: "I object to that definition of liberty which says it is lost when mob rule no longer prevails.

Liberty is obedience to the law. There can be no liberty without law." Richard I. Manning, the present governor of South Carolina, said: "I feel it my duty in behalf of the people of South Carolina to state that South Carolina does not stand for mob rule.
The citizens of my State in my election endorsed my position for the enforcement of law and order." Gov. H. S. Stuart, of Virginia, said:
"The people of my State stand firm, last and all the time for rigid enforcement of laws. I do not believe there is anywhere any real sentiment to support the taking of law into the hands of a mob. There have been crimes which called for a lynching bee. In fact, in my own administration there have been five heinous crimes, but our people respect the law."

The Governors' Conference this attention elected the following officers: Executive committee—Gov. William Spray of Utah, chairman; Gov. H. C.
Stuart of Virginia, Gov. Arthur Capper of Kansas, John Franklin Port of New Jersey, treasurer, and Miles C. Riley, of Madison, Wis., secretary.
The conference voted to hold its next annual conference at Salt Lake City, Utah.
"Turks Repulse Allies' Attack." Constantinople (via Berlin wireless), Aug. 27.—Repulse of an attack by allied troops against the Turkish left wing on Gallipoli Peninsula was announced by the war office today. The official statement follows: "Weak forces attacked our left wing at Sed-ul-Bahr, but were dispersed. On the Anafarta, Ari-Burnu and Sed-ul-Bahr fronts the enemy maintained a strong artillery fire, wasting ammunition."

PRIEST SHOTS BISHOP.
Winona, Minn., Aug. 27.—Bishop Patrick Heffron, of the Catholic Diocese of Winona, was shot and probably fatally wounded today by a man who was said to have been a former priest. The shooting occurred at St.
Mary's College, one mile west of here.
Two bullets entered the bishop's body just above the heart. Bishop Heffron is a native of New York. It is said the bishop had found certain work of the priest unsatisfactory.
Cloudburst Wrecks Train; Four Die.
Phoenix, Ariz., Aug. 27.—Four persons were reported killed and twelve injured, when a northbound Santa Fe train was wrecked today on a bridge at Date Creek, seventy miles from here. The bridge was weakened by a cloudburst.
